GRATITUDE TO FR. LOUIS KWENA

This weekend August 24th and 25th will be an opportunity for us to express our gratitude to Fr. Louis Kwena for his time of serving as assistant Pastor here at Sacred Heart Cathedral. Fr. Louis will move to St. Mary's Parish, New Hazelton beginning the month of September. We will have a small reception at the church foyer after the 9:00 AM Mass this Sunday, August 25th. Please bring a plate of goodies to share.

CANDIDACY: Matthew Bellerive, a seminarian for the diocese, will be admitted to Candidacy by Bishop Jensen on Sunday, September 1, 2019 at Sacred Heart Cathedral, during the 11:00 AM Mass.

In the Rite of Admission to Candidacy, a candidate expresses his intention to receive ordination as a Deacon and as a Priest and the bishop formally accepts the candidate for service in the diocese.

Matthew is a parishioner of Sacred Heart Cathedral. He is in priestly formation and studying theology at Christ the King Seminary, Mission, BC. A small reception will follow at the church foyer.

MASS IN THE EXTRAORDINARY FORM OF THE ROMAN RITE

A Solemn High Mass celebrated in the Extraordinary Form of the Mass of the Roman Rite (according to the 1962 edition of the Roman Missal) is scheduled for Sacred Heart Cathedral on Sunday, September 15, 2019, 3:00 pm. Fr. Daniel Geddes from the Priestly Fraternity of St. Peter, Pastor of Holy Family Parish in Vancouver, will be the celebrant.

As a simple explanation, in 2007 Pope Benedict XVI issued a document entitled "Summorum Pontificum" which gave priests anywhere around the world permission to celebrate the Mass using the 1962 Missal.

In his letter to bishops concerning the document, he explained that the liturgical tradition of the Roman Rite incorporated two forms – the ordinary, which we celebrate regularly, and the extraordinary, to which many have continued to be devoted. Both forms belong to the Roman Rite and are to be seen as the continual flow of the 2000-year liturgical tradition of the Church. The pope emphasized there was no fracture of the tradition at the Second Vatican Council.

Both forms are celebrated in Latin, although the current edition of the Roman Missal allows for vernacular languages to be used.

The Apostolic Letter, Summorum Pontificum was issued on July 7, 2007 and carried an effective date of September 14, 2007. Hence, 12 years after the letter's effective date, Mass will again be offered at Sacred Heart Cathedral in the Extraordinary Form of the Roman Rite.

Members of the UnaVoce Prince George Chapter will be providing servers and a schola (choir). UnaVoce is a lay Catholic organization dedicated to Gregorian chant and polyphony in the Church and the incorporation of it in both forms of the Roman Rite. We will have a potluck dinner after the Solemn High Mass. Liturgical catechesis and formation will be provided prior to September 15.

Beginning next month, every third Wednesday of the month Bishop Jensen, Fr. Rector and other priests in the diocese will lead us to a Lectio Divina here at Sacred Heart Cathedral.

Please mark your calendar! You are invited to a personal encounter with God through Scripture. Please attend the first Lectio Divina with Fr. Rector on Wednesday, September 18, 2019, 7:00 PM.

"Lectio Divina" means divine reading in Latin. It is an ancient practice that teaches us how to read, meditate on and live the Word of God.

This Lectio Divina will be video recorded and will be posted on YouTube channel of the Diocese of Prince George so that it becomes available across the diocese.

SACRAMENTAL PREPARATION Sacramental Preparation for children who will celebrate Reconciliation, First Communion, & Confirmation will begin next month. Please register your children. Meeting of parents with Fr. Rector will take place on Thursday, September 19th, 6:00PM in the church.
